$195 Million Program Proposed By Kennedy

Congress Gets Fallout Protection Plan

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Kennedy Administration proposed to Congress today a $195-million fallout protection program which would protect shelters in the nation's suburbs.

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara sent the plan to the House and Senate, coupling it with a recommendation that the Pentagon civil defense program be broadened to cover natural disaster relief.

McNamara said the Defense Department's national shelter survey has located spaces that would provide fallout protection for more than 100 million Americans.

He said 70 per cent of the space could be ready for use this year "as a nucleus of a program of fallout shelter for all the population, near homes and places of work."

But the defense secretary added that many of the spaces located so far are in urban areas. "There is need for new shelter space better located in relation to homes," he said. The shelter program is far less ambitious than that sought—and denied by Congress—a year ago.

McNamara said more shelter spaces will become available as local governments, industries, schools and hospitals undertake their civil defense responsibilities.

"However, local efforts to meet the deficiency in shelter requirements appear clearly inadequate in the absence of federal financial assistance," he said. "The necessary legislation to make a moderate start in stimulating more widespread shelter space is needed this year."

McNamara proposed a $175-million incentive program, offering federal aid of up to $2.50 a square foot for civic and nonprofit institutions which provide acceptable shelter spaces.

To qualify for the assistance, a shelter would have to provide space for at least 50 persons and be open to the public under local civil defense direction in case of attack.

Stage Set for Contempt Trial

Barnett, Johnson Face Federal Charge

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — The stage was set today for the criminal contempt trial of Mississippi Gov. Ross Barnett and Lt. Gov. Paul B. Johnson Jr. The issues are state vs. federal law.

Opposing attorneys acted swiftly Friday in the face of a deadline set by the 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals to lay final preparations for a Feb. 8 hearing—the first in the unprecedented case.

Mississippi lawyers asked that the case be dismissed. They said the two state officials acted in obedience of state laws when they tried to block the admission of Negro James H. Meredith to the University of Mississippi last fall.

Justice Department attorneys contended, in a memorandum answering the 15-part Mississippi motion, that the only issue is whether there was a willful disobedience of federal court orders.

The court has already held the two in civil contempt and set a fine of $10,000 a day and continuing imprisonment for Barnett until he complies.

However, the court hasn't imposed the penalty and hasn't said whether, or when, they purged themselves of the civil contempt. In criminal contempt, a judge rules by a defendant's past actions and there is no second chance.

Barnett twice turned Meredith away from Ole Miss—once after the federal appeals court issued a specific order prohibiting such interference — and Johnson stopped the Negro once. Meredith enrolled Oct. 1 after a night of rioting that killed two and injured scores.

Another Negro has asked federal court to order the university to accept him as a student. Dewey Greene Jr., 22, of Greenwood, Miss., sought the action after he was turned away Thursday. Attorney William Higgs also filed a motion to have registrar Robert Ellis held in contempt for refusing to register Greene.

2 Die, Third Overcome By Gas Fumes

MINERVA — A Malvern woman, Mrs. Pearl Ullom, 49, was one of two victims found asphyxiated Friday morning at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harold Britton of New Martinsville, W. Va., where she had gone Thursday to help in the home due to the hospitalization of Mr. Britton.

The other victim was Junior Thompson, 38, of Cadiz, who had been also helping with work in the home. Mrs. Britton was found unconscious in her bed and was taken to the hospital.

The accident, which occurred sometime during the night Thursday or early Friday, was discovered at 7 a.m. when Thompson failed to report for work and employees called the Britton residence. Upon receiving no answer, they consulted the constable of New Martinsville who went to the home and, unable to arouse anyone, broke down the door and found the body of Thompson on the bathroom floor and Mrs. Ullom at the foot of her sister's bed.

Claims Ballistic Missiles Are On Island

Thurmond Says Cuba Still Soviet Stronghold

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Strom Thurmond, D-S.C., has charged that "behind the brush curtain in Cuba" lies a formidable Soviet strategic base with ballistic missiles and 30,000 to 40,000 troops.

He said—in a newsletter to constituents Friday—that the information came from reliable sources. A Pentagon spokesman disputed the report, telling news-

"The information contained in Sen. Thurmond's weekly newsletter is at wide variance with carefully evaluated data collected by U.S. intelligence from continued surveillance and other sources."

And the spokesman for the Pentagon — which for more than a week has been contradicting "informed sources" claims of growing Russian power on Cuba—asked the senator to back up his charges.

Thurmond made public his estimates — without identifying the sources—as a Senate Armed Services subcommittee tagged the Cuban military situation for an early investigation to "get all the facts." And Secretary of State Dean Rusk conceded at a news conference that "there is a significant Soviet military presence in Cuba which is of great concern to the United States."

Thurmond, a reserve Army major general, listed an array of missiles, bombers, tanks and other armaments in Cuba which he said "indicates the presence of a complete Soviet army, and the inventory normally assigned to a Soviet army."

Among the armament he listed as in Cuba were:

— "Nuclear-tipped FROG missiles, with a 300-mile range."

— "More than 150 Cruise missiles, some of which arrived in the last three weeks, are on four coastal defense sites."

— "Estimates of ballistic missiles with a 1,100-2,000-mile range in underground facilities run between 100 and 200."

Thurmond also contended that proof of Cuba's strategic importance to Russia is "the continuing assignment in Cuba of Soviet Lt. Gen. Pavil B. Dankevich, prominent Russian export in strategic missiles." And he added that "a reported shipment to Cuba recently of atomic warhead materials was estimated as quite substantial."

The size Thurmond gave for the Soviet force—which he said is under command of Gen. C. O. Slazenko—is about double the 16,000 to 17,000 Soviet military personnel President Kennedy said are still in Cuba.

The Pentagon spokesman, while contradicting the senator's figure of 30,000 to 40,000 Russian troops, also took issue with his statement that there are missiles in Cuba with ranges up to 2,200 miles.

The Pentagon said there is no evidence of ballistic missiles or nuclear warheads in Cuba. It added that although there are FROG missiles with a 300-mile range, the ones in Cuba have about a 50-mile range.

McCorkhill to Seek GOP Bid For Solicitor

With the filing deadline only three days away, only three candidates have filed as candidates for Salem's primary elections next May.

Atty. Scott McCorkhill filed Friday afternoon for the Republican nomination for city solicitor, a post now held by Atty. Thomas Coe. McCorkhill held the office previously by appointment, having been named by Mayor Dean B. Cranmer in 1960 when James Primm resigned as solicitor.

The first candidates to file with the board of elections were Mayor Cranmer, a Democrat who will seek a fifth term, and Councilman-at-Large James D. Aidom, also a Democrat, seeking re-election to Council.

Neither party, as yet, has announced even a partial slate of officers for the Salem primaries.

File From Columbiana

Meanwhile, four Democrats entered for Columbiana village offices.

They are Adin R. Kauffmann for treasurer; Willard E. Zellers for council; and Joseph Magill and Harry C. Keylor for the board of trustees of public affairs.

A Republican who filed yesterday for Columbiana was W. Roy Guy, for Council.

Paul J. Adams filed for East Palestine Council.

Although the filing deadline falls next Wednesday at 4 p.m., only 65 candidates have entered officially for posts in seven cities and villages, the Election Board staff pointed out. At the deadline for the last comparable election in 1961, a total of 219 candidates had entered.

Storms Cripple Western U.S.

9 Persons Die In California Disaster

By The Associated Press

Destructive winds and blizzard conditions paralyzed much of the nation's western half today, unleashing damaging floods, snapping power lines, closing schools, halting transportation and leaving several persons dead.

In rain-soaked northern California, rivers began receding into their banks, leaving 9 persons dead and about 500 homeless after a three-day storm dumped 22 inches of rain in many heavily populated areas, accompanied by winds up to 100 m.p.h.

Much of southern Idaho lay beneath deep, murky water, forcing hundreds of persons from their homes, disrupting transportation and causing damage in the millions.

Gov. Robert E. Smylie declared a state of "extreme emergency" in four southern Idaho counties.

Blistering winds and blizzard snowing which had lashed the Rocky Mountain area subsided, but rain combined to make a poor situation worse. Most of Montana was glazed with a coating of ice, closing schools, halting bus transportation, closing highways—and even keeping some mail carriers off their routes.

Parts of Colorado were hit by 100 m.p.h. winds. Heavy damage was reported at the Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs and at Boulder, home of the University of Colorado.

The eastern half of the nation wasn't exactly basking in comfort, either.

Gloomy weather enveloped the central and southern Atlantic states through Tennessee, the Ohio and Middle Mississippi valleys into most of the Midwest. Low-lying clouds were accompanied by fog and drizzle.

The downpour in California did more than cause floods and drive persons from their homes—the rain fell at 8,000 feet in the mountains, melting snow and costing the state part of its anticipated supply of water for the summer.

The overflow on the eastern side of the Sierra which escaped the Truckee River and stood up to 4 feet high in downtown Reno, began receding.

But one thing didn't stop in Reno—gambling. It went on as usual.

Helicopters and boats rescued flood-marooned families in north-

Regents Board Bill To Be Aired By House Group

Plan on Education Gets Backing of Governor Rhodes

By WILLIAM S. VANCE

News Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — The House Education Committee will begin hearings soon on the Rhodes administration's retooled Ohio Board of Regents bill which already is causing some jitters in the state's halls of ivory.

Administration leaders say the bill is designed to bring some order out of the confusion now surrounding state university programming, financing and expansion.

But the measure has come under the fire of some educators as representing political intrusion in the sacred field of higher education. Their objections apparently stem from a fear that university boards of trustees will lose autonomy.

Say It's Not So

Not so, say administration sources such as House Speaker Roger Cloud, R-Logan, and House Majority Whip Harry V. Jump, R-Huron.

"Under this bill, institutions will be as fully autonomous as they have been in the past," said Cloud.

"Nothing could be further from the truth," said the Speaker. "We simply need some group, an objective group, to provide the cohesion we've never had in higher education."

'Should Ease Problems'

Jump, who introduced the revised bill Thursday, echoed Cloud's sentiments and said the bill should ease many of the problems now plaguing the state and the five universities and one college it operates.

Rep. Robert H. Longworth, R-Carroll, who heads the House Education Committee, also sees merit in the regents plan. Longworth, who was one of the bill's sponsors and who was among those responsible for the regents idea, said it would give Ohio a long-needed master plan for higher education.

Another endorsement from the majority side comes from Rep. Ralph E. Fisher, R-Wayne, chairman of the House Finance Committee.

Fisher Now Convinced

Fisher said he was somewhat skeptical of the regents proposal at the outset but is convinced now that it would represent a big stride in the right direction.

He pointed out that state university budget requests now are handled by the Inter-University Council, a group made up of the six state institution presidents and

IN U.S.-CANADA CLASH — Canadian Prime Minister John Diefenbaker has grim expression following a cabinet meeting in Ottawa. He accused the United States of "unwarranted intrusion" into Canadian affairs. Charge was made in House of Commons with reference to a statement issued by U.S. State Department questioning the Canadian government's nuclear policy.

If Teamster Boss Unable To Get Bonded

U.S. May Take Legal Steps To Oust Hoffa

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government is reliably reported considering legal action to stop James R. Hoffa from operating as president of the Teamsters Union if he is unable to obtain a "faithful duty" bond after Feb. 8.

Hoffa told the House Labor Committee Friday that neither he nor his union can be held in willful violation of the bonding requirement because the bonding firms have all suddenly refused to extend further bonding protection.

The Teamsters Union chief blamed the impasse on alleged Justice Department pressure a charge denied before the committee by Deputy Atty. Gen. Nicholas Katzenbach. The Justice Department has suggested the bonding firms may be balking at underfunded connections of Teamsters insurance agents.

Officials said there are two mandatory requirements of the law under consideration: That union officials be bonded, and that no union official without bond be permitted to "receive, handle, disburse, or otherwise exercise custody or control of the funds or other property of a labor organization."

The penalty for "willful" violation of either provision of the 1959

Landrum-Griffin labor law is a maximum $10,000 fine and a year in prison.

The government is said to take the view that a union might be excused from willful failure to bond its officers, the first requirement, if the union made a good faith effort to get bond coverage and still couldn't do so.

This would not apply, however, if there was a lack of good faith, such as conditioning the bond on the bonding company making kickbacks of part of the premium.

Officials see no discretion as to the second requirement—that no union official without being bonded may handle or control union funds. To attempt to do so without a bond, for whatever reason, they say, clearly would be a willful violation.

The government has not made a firm decision about what it will do if Hoffa and other officers and employees at Teamsters headquarters here and in some 450 local lack coverage when their present bond expires at noon on Feb. 8. But high officials said today they feel they will be impelled to take court action, alleging violation of either or both requirements.

Macmillan Has Audience With Pope

VATICAN CITY (AP)—British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, in Rome for an effort to repair European unity had a private audience today with Pope John XXIII.

The Roman Catholic pontiff and Macmillan talked for a half-hour in the Pope's private library.

Macmillan sped to the Vatican for the meeting, described by officials there as a courtesy call, after another conference with Italian Premier Amintore Fanfani in an attempt to keep alive a possibility of Britain's entry into the European Common Market despite French opposition.

He was accompanied to the Vatican by Deputy Foreign Secretary Edward Heath, who conducted the Brussels negotiations wrecked Tuesday by a French veto, and Sir Peter Scarlett, British minister to the Holy See. As is customary, there was no announcement as to what the

Diefenbaker May Dissolve Parliament

Recent U.S. Blast On Nuclear Arms Cause of Tension

OTTAWA (AP) — A round of secret conferences has heightened speculation that Prime Minister John Diefenbaker will dissolve Parliament and call for new elections in a crisis growing out of U.S. demands that Canada take a clear stand on nuclear weapons. Diefenbaker paid a 40-minute call Friday on Governor-General George Vanier, a required prelude to any decision to dissolve Parliament. The prime minister then met with Foreign Secretary Howard Green and Charles Titchie, Canadian ambassador to Washington.

A decision could be announced after a cabinet meeting today. Dissolution can be ordered at any time regardless of whether Parliament is sitting. The House of Commons is adjourned until Monday.

U.S. Secretary of State Dean Rusk Friday defended as necessary the statement that Canada was dragging its feet on accepting nuclear warheads for U.S.-supplied Bomarc missiles and Voodoo intercept jets at home and in Europe.

Expressing regret if the United States gave offense, Rusk said the statement was issued because of public debate in Ottawa of issues that figured in secret discussions between the two countries.

"Without notice to us," said Rusk, "there was disclosure of confidential exchanges between our two governments."

Diefenbaker declined to comment directly on Rusk's statement, but declared that Canada had demonstrated it is "not in the new frontier of the United States."

The question now is whether Diefenbaker, whose Conservative Party came out 17 seats short of a majority in last June's elections, will try to take political advantage of the repercussions of the Washington statement and try to recapture a majority of seats in new elections.

Diefenbaker's government said it was still seeking an agreement with Washington on the control of weapons because it does not want to enlarge the number of nations possessing nuclear weapons.

Two-Plane Crash In Turkey Kills 79

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—Search crews sifted through debris remnants of a two-plane air collision that rained flaming wreckage on this city's main square, killing more persons on the ground than in the air.

Seventy-nine persons were killed in the crash Friday—five of them Americans who were passengers in a Middle East Airlines Viscount flying from Beirut, Lebanon, via Cyprus. That plane carried 14 persons to their deaths; the other plane, a Turkish air force ship, had three men aboard. All died.

More than 100 persons on the ground were injured, at least 10 of them so badly they were given no chance for recovery by hospital officials.

Mincks, who was uninjured, was cited for reckless operation.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

No One Else Knows Either

The agricultural issue has been thrown into congressional controversy again with a new administration proposal.

This one is less restrictive than it might be. But like all its predecessors and successor, it has a grave flaw.

The proposal will not solve the agricultural problem. It will not be solved during the Kennedy administration. It wasn't solved during the Eisenhower, Truman, Roosevelt, Hoover, Coolidge, Harding and Wilson administrations, either.

The problem is chronic and permanent in the United States, as it is in every industrial country. The heart and core of industrialism is controlled production. When industrial production gets out of kilter, the country is in trouble.

If too much is produced, prices sag and we have deflation.

If too little is produced, prices soar and we have inflation.

The trick is to keep supply and demand in reasonable relationship, which means stimulating demand so it stays just far enough ahead of supply to keep the economy moving forward.

THAT'S THE trick everybody tries to master in agriculture. But success has eluded not only agriculturalists, who have no way to get together on production totals and only inadequate ways to stimulate demand, but government, which has tried to help them control their output.

There never has been a farm program under any administration that could be called a success. Agriculture has boomed only in wartime. The rest of the time, due to ever-increasing efficiency of production, it has been bogged down in overproduction and smothered in surpluses.

When government under both political parties has tried to control production it was charged with interference. Yet it is indisputable that if government tried to pull out of the problem there would be a strenuous demand for it to get back into the thick of the problem immediately, despite the common idea that it is to blame for everything that goes wrong.

No one in politics knows how to stay on the good side of farmers, but everybody with farmer constituents dreads their wrath. This is the background of the black art of farm politics, in which the office-seeker must carry water on both shoulders, keep his chin up, with one ear to the ground, avert inflation for other prices while inflating farm prices and plow a straight furrow around Robin Hood's ban.

THE YOUNG MEN of the Kennedy administration, including Secretary of Agriculture Orville Lathrop Freeman, who will be 45 next May, won't solve the farm problem in their time, either. They don't know how.

No one else knows how either, though periodically the country's so-called "farm leaders" must pretend they have just stumbled on to something magical, which always turns out to be just another scheme to help farmers control production to keep prices high, the same as their far better organized brothers in industry.

And who pays? All consumers, just the same way as all consumers pay the overhead for everything else.

By DAVID LAWRENCE

It may take a little while before the new facts of tax life sink in and, when they do, there may be widespread discontent as the citizens discover that a tax cut is to be accompanied by a tax rise.

David Lawrence that will prevail

While it is easy enough to show that taxpayers in all brackets may come out with a slight cut in taxes, the person who makes out a return will have the feeling that somehow the government, though reducing his tax rate, is trying to get nearly all of it back by a penalizing system of amendments to the tax rules.

The biggest source of dissatisfaction is the so-called 5 per cent "floor" on all deductions. Whether it be a charitable contribution, the interest on one's house mortgage, losses sustained that are not covered by insurance, or even allowance for state income and property taxes paid, the fact remains that the new rules would deprive many taxpayers of a part of the deductions enjoyed almost since the day when the present income tax laws and regulations were first written.

A PERSON WHO made out his will years ago now faces some substantial changes which will mean he will leave his wife or children less money than had been contemplated. Why should a legal document drawn up years ago as a trust, for instance, suddenly be affected by a retroactive tax law? To cut through human habits and customs and revolutionize them on the theory that this is a desirable "tax reform" is to damage the party in power.

The planned-deficit policy will be vigorously debated.

While the average man may feel the subject is over his head, the chances are that, after all the hubbalo about tax reductions, if he winds up with tax savings of only a few cents a week—as the government goes into the red by many billions of dollars—he will finally say, "let well enough alone."

For if the proposed tax plan goes through, there will be many individuals who will be adversely affected, and many non-profit institutions will find it hard sledding. Tax rules operate in so many different sectors that there are bound to be some who benefit or who are not materially affected.

Gratitude in political life, however, is less important than dissatisfaction. Those who are hurt will be vocal. Those who will be moderately benefitted will be indifferent.

The administration's gamble is that there will be more money overall to spend, and that this will bring prosperity and thus decrease unemployment.

THERE'S A difference between a "planned" deficit, such as is being proposed and those deficits of the past which came naturally as the business curve turned downward. Deliberately to plan to put the government into the red by many billions serves notice on everybody. It means that somehow there has to be a psychology of spending rather than saving on the new tax reductions.

The confusion that may result from the far-reaching penalties that the new tax law would impose could cause a period of hesitation in the economy which would be costly all around.

Economic discontent has swung many an election away from the incumbent.

William Howard Taft was elected in 1908 on a wave of prosperity, and he got one of the biggest majorities in the electoral college up to that time.

He was a jovial, good-natured man who was extremely popular when he was inaugurated in March 1909. Less than two years later, his popularity took a nose dive after he signed a tariff bill that failed to cut down the cost of living. It was the key issue of the times. His party was split, and he was defeated in 1912.

Harry Truman in 1946 was at the low point of his political strength after a mid-term election that gave the Republicans control of both houses. This was due to the high cost of food because of delays in removing price controls after World War II.

He overcame some of the dissatisfaction and won by a narrow margin of popular votes in 1948.

THERE ARE other instances of adverse impact of policies or voter discontent. Herbert Hoover was elected by a huge majority in 1928, carrying almost every northern state and some southern states. But in 1930 his party lost control of Congress, and in 1932 Mr. Hoover was the victim of a landslide due to the depression.

He had little to do with its origin, as the whole world was involved in an economic readjustment, but the voters took their grievances out on his administration just the same.

President Kennedy's popularity, as measured in public opinion polls, is high today, but if the present tax law is enacted, it may spell the doom of both the President and his party in November 1964.

Politicians are supposed to be smart enough to watch out for the votes of big groups. The taxpayers constitute the biggest single group in the whole population. Millions of them will be dissatisfied with the new plan when they make out their income tax returns early in 1964. It may be too late then to remedy the political mistakes that will have inflicted deep wounds and created widespread discontent.

Liquor's 'Warmth'

Alcohol cannot warm you up. In fact, it may cause body temperature to drop.

That's one of the cold scientific facts pointed out in an article on liquor in the February Today's Health magazine, published by the American Medical Association.

"The false sensation of warmth is produced by the fact that alcohol diverts body heat to the face and skin, causing the drinker to flush, and perhaps even to perspire," the article said. "Below the skin surfaces, however, he's just as cold or colder than before he had a drink."

The article also straightened out the facts on liquor and longevity. Extensive studies, conducted by the Yale Center of Alcohol Studies, show that alcoholics and those who drink immoderately have appreciably shorter life expectancies, it said. However, it said, the studies show that moderate drinkers live just as long but no longer than abstainers.

Son of Crisis

Hoffa's Latest Luxury

By VICTOR RIESEL

Jimmy Hoffa's newest status symbol is a luxurious private airplane. He and some of his colleagues have too many places to go to wait on common commercial flying machines.

Victor Riesel active right now — in New York, Chicago, Los Angeles, Nashville and Miami.

Federal attorneys in five districts from coast to coast are preparing spectacular trials of already indicted high Teamster leaders.

These are evidence that, regardless of Hoffa's newest propaganda counter-offensive, the Justice Department has not the slightest intention of easing up its financial dealings.

The department will not comment officially—but there is nothing to the report that the probes its efforts to unravel the Team will be called off.

THOUSANDS OF TEAMSTERS checks have been examined by special federal units. Many hundreds have been traced. Typical is the effective work of the Los Angeles Grand Jury. It has been looking deeply into a mysterious man intimate of Jimmy Hoffa's.

He is Nate Stein, known to all the boys in Beverly Hills, Las Vegas and Broadway. On Oct. 18, 1962, he was arrested by the FBI on charges of influencing a witness before the McClellan racket committee. That witness was Joel Benton.

Swashbuckling Stein is out on $10,000 bond awaiting grand jury action.

Characteristic of the Justice Department's unraveling technique is the case of witness Joel Benton. He received three checks from Local 299, Hoffa's home local in Detroit. Also one check from Local 41, Kansas City, one of whose officials already has been convicted of embezzling local union funds.

THESE PAYMENTS totaled $4,400. According to Benton's own affidavit to the McClellan committee, he got the money for counting trucks on the Los Angeles to San Francisco route. Also for public relations work.

Benton said that Nate Stein had come to him and announced that his "friend Jimmy Hoffa wanted a confidential count made of trucks operating between San Francisco and Los Angeles on both the coast and inland routes."

Benton said he counted the trucks personally.

During the McClellan committee hearings Hoffa was asked why he chose Stein.

"What was in Mr. Nate Stein's background . . . that made you select him to check trucks on the West Coast?"

Hoffa replied that he had known "Nate" for a number of years and that since he was on the West Coast Hoffa selected him.

Then Hoffa was asked if he had teamsters on the West Coast who could count trucks. Hoffa said yes.

WHY DID Hoffa not get them to count trucks, came the query. . . . rather than the public relations man for the Sands Hotel in Las Vegas?

Hoffa replied that he reserved the right to run his union with the approval of his executive board.

That's the background of one phase of the Los Angeles probe. A few days ago the grand jury subpoenaed Hoffa. It wants to discuss the incident further with him.

A few days after the subpoena, Hoffa began blasting the Department of Justice. He charged that it was persecuting him and pressuring bonding companies into refusing to bond Teamsters officials.

Observers know, of course, that it is now illegal for a union official involved in the handling of funds to be unbonded.

Hoffa's insinuation, therefore, appears to be that Attorney General Bob Kennedy is trying to unseat him by subterfuge.

ACTUALLY THIS is real bright of Hoffa. He has started a fight he can't lose. To know why, one needs to know something about the intricacies of the bonding business.

Earle Bruce Defends Morton

A situation has developed about which I feel deeply concerned. This situation concerns my friend and fellow coach, Blaine Morton. I am sure a mistake has been made that has not only hurt a man but his family, friends, the community, and the athletic program.

It might be too late to rectify this but when the story is discussed in professional circles the "stigma" will hang over Salem athletics. Superintendents move on to greener pastures, boards of education change, but "stigmas" remain with the community for a long time. To remove a man, who has seen fit to make his home in Salem, without a solid reason is a terrible situation, one of which Salem cannot be proud.

Let's look at the record. For Blaine's sake. He has been a teacher and coach in Salem for six years. He was backfield coach with me for three years and head coach three years. The football record for those years was 45 wins and 13 losses. It must be obvious that Blaine was not relieved because of his record. Blaine possesses such personal qualities as loyalty, industry, cooperativeness, social acceptance, emotional stability, seriousness of purpose, responsibility and a deep concern for the players he coaches. I hope these are qualities you and I would want the man who was to coach our sons to have. Some superintendents would be glad to have these qualities in a coach.

France Has Done the Losing

Like the last scene of the last act of a tragedy, France has played out the role written into the script by President Charles de Gaulle and been destroyed with the imperativeness that obsesses him.

Everybody knew what he was in danger of doing.

Everybody knew what he was in danger of doing. He pulled the rug from under France's Common Market partners; they all wanted Britain inside the Common Market.

He has destroyed all prospects of closer cooperation between Common Market nations and the United Kingdom. He has gone against the grain of U.S. thought about the unification of Western Europe.

This is balance-of-power politics in the grand manner. It is a move worthy of the king and emperors of yesteryear. There even is reason to wonder if it may be the beginning of a grand scheme of power balancing that will find France not only bargaining for advantage with its friends but dicker for advantage with its friends' opponents.

As Britain's prime minister Harold Macmillan pointed out to the House of Commons a few days ago, this was the path that led to war in the past. The dream of peace in the future has been doused in ice water.

Cuba For the Chinese?

The continuation of Russian military units in Cuba and their rumored buildup is causing conjecture and increasing concern in many circles.

Theories are advanced in explanation. Investigations are launched on both the political and congressional level. But, as yet, no answer to the question "Why?" has been forthcoming.

Could it be that the Kennedy administration knows the answer but, because of the nature of the answer, prefers to suffer attacks upon itself rather than speak out?

Could it be that Russia, having masterminded the conquest of Cuba and established a beachhead in the Americas, has no intention of letting it go by default to the Chinese Reds?

Castro, with his tirades and bombast, his threats of force and pleas for revolution, often sounds more like a brother of Mao Tse-tung than of his Russian counterpart, Nikita Khrushchev.

Purely Personal

All the stories about what happens to people who shovel snow convinced me. I asked for a demonstration of a slow-blower and bought the gadget after watching it work five minutes. Whoosh! The snow flew 40 feet out of our quarter-mile-long lane in Rosy Finger Dawn. Just disappeared!

Everybody has mixed emotions about Charles de Gaulle of France. They admire the man for his independence and determination to restore French prestige, but keep grinding their teeth because his independence and determination cut across the grain of their own convenience.

It is possible to judge what the mood of people is by the variation in the flow of letters to the editors of newspapers. The long dark days of midwinter are most likely to stimulate letter-writers. They are least likely to write during the weeks just before and just after Christmas.

I feel sorry for men who do not have a large dog to curl up around their feet while they are shaving. It is a great comfort on cold mornings to have warm feet during this laborious and ticklish operation.

There is a strong case to be made for wiping the slate clean periodically and starting over, thus eliminating the hopeless complications that arise when men try to cover up mistakes of the past with a new layer of mistakes in the present. Like amending the Blue Law, for example.

It has been 15 years since the assassination of Mahatma Gandhi, a reminder of something that has been forgotten. Nehru was Gandhi's disciple and political heir. Yet Nehru has strayed so far from Gandhi's nonviolence that this fact has been overlooked. It could explain Nehru's lapses into mysticism—lapses from which he recovers with a burst of violence, like the attack on the Portuguese enclaves and his quarrel with Pakistan.

I cannot judge whether public employees should have more or the same number of paid holidays as private employees. But I can judge what happens when something once given is taken away. If public employees are brought in line with private employees they will do as little as possible on the holidays they resent not having any more.

The lady I go hiking through snowdrifts with has little sense of balance or uneven footing, but thanks to the depth of the snow we go hiking in has avoided serious injury. She sits down, does not fall down. Brrr.

I am not of the belief that dumb animals must be cared for as if they were people, but I am of the belief that people owe them the care due to dumb animals and failure to do this is an offense not only against the animals but against other humans.

When the Football Hall of Fame in Canton gets under full sail, I hope something can be done in recognition of normal-sized men who played football in competition with behemoths, like Bert Metzger of Notre Dame, an All-American "watch charm" guard who has my personal inspiration as a lightweight line-man a long time ago.

I have laughed a dozen times this winter about the householder who told the handyman not to shovel the snow into the street or pile it up alongside the driveway and discovered it when he got home that night piled up in the garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bell

St. Paul's Church Scene Of Kupka-Bell Nuptials

High nuptial mass was celebrated by Rev. J. Richard Gaffney at 10 a.m. Jan. 26 in St. Paul's Catholic Church, uniting in marriage Miss Eleanor Elaine Kupka, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kupka of 1021 E. 3rd St., and Joseph Paul Bell of Leetonia, son of Mrs. George Bell of Chillicothe Rd., Aurora, and the late Mr. Bell.

Mrs. Leon Kunevich presented traditional wedding melodies as the bride was escorted by her father to the altar which was decorated by twin vases of white carnations and snapdragons. Cascading arrangements of cathedral candles lighted the decor.

The bride wore a white waltz-length gown of satin with overskirt of pleated tulle. The deep scooped neckline was outlined with sequin and pearl trimmed Alencon lace, and the molded bodice boasted brief sleeves. She wore elbow-length white gloves and carried a Colonial bouquet of white roses and pompons set off by tendrils of green velvet ivy. Her veil of English illusion was held by a halfhat of Chantilly lace edged in seed pearls.

A fern green velveteen cocktail-length gown with scoop neck and Dior sleeves was worn by Miss Helen Kupka, who was maid of honor for her sister. Her headpiece was a pearl crown, and she carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow roses and pompons.

Mr. Bell chose his brother, Thomas, to be his best man. Steve Kupka Jr., brother of the bride, and Richard Bell, another brother of the bridegroom, ushered.

Mrs. Kupka wore a royal blue crepe dress for her daughter's wedding, and the mother of the bridegroom was dressed in a black crepe gown. Both mothers had corsages of pink sweetheart roses.

Miss Pauletta Begalla registered the 150 guests who attended the reception in the Veterans of Foreign Wars Hall. A miniature bride and bridegroom topped the four-tier wedding cake which was decorated with white bells and silver leaves. Lighted candles on each side of the cake and the bouquets of the bride and bridesmaid completed the decor of the bride's table.

For her wedding trip to Pennsylvania, the bride wore a two-piece beige dress and a corsage of white orchids.

Dr. Sam Sheppard Becomes Engaged to German Divorcee

CLEVELAND (AP)—A striking platinum blonde from Germany wore a two-carat diamond ring today after announcing she now is formally engaged to convicted wife-slayer, Dr. Sam Sheppard.

Mrs. Ariane Tebbenjohanns, a divorcee, said Friday night Dr. Sam gave her the ring as a token "of our love for one another." The 33-year-old Heiss said she wants to marry him as soon as he gets out of prison.

Sheppard is serving a life sentence but could be eligible for parole after serving 10 years for the July 1954 bludgeoning slaying of his pregnant wife, Marilyn.

"I was so thrilled about getting the ring," said Mrs. Tebbenjohanns, daughter of a wealthy industrialist in Duesseldorf. She came to this country after corresponding for three years with Dr. Sam through his family.

Sheppard's brother, Dr. Stephen

Sheppard, said he took the ring to Mrs. Tebbenjohanns after visiting Dr. Sam at Marion Correctional Institution. He said Dr. Sam authorized him to give the ring to Mrs. Tebbenjohanns, who is staying at his home in suburban Rocky River.

The attractive divorcee was not permitted to see Dr. Sam, and Dr. Stephen Sheppard criticized Ohio's Correctional Commissioner, Maury C. Koblenz, for what he termed a "form of mental torture." "It's improper for him not to let Ariane see Dr. Sam—really psychologically cruel and unfair treatment."

Koblenz has said he still isn't certain of the couple's relationship and has barred Mrs. Tebbenjohanns from visiting or writing to Sheppard pending further investigation.

Dr. Sam was disappointed over the latest development in the celebrated case, the brother reported.

Earlier in the day, Gov. James Rhodes went along with the unanimous recommendation of the Pardon and Parole Commission and refused to give Sheppard a commutation. Such action would have made him eligible for immediate parole consideration.

Now the 39-year-old former osteopath will have to wait until 1965 for a parole hearing.

Meanwhile, the family took another tack in its continuing effort to free Dr. Sam from his sentence for second-degree murder. Dr. Stephen Sheppard said he instructed F. Lee Bailey, a Boston attorney, to prepare papers for an appeal to the U.S. District Court in Toledo. He said the appeal will be filed within six weeks on the ground Dr. Sam was convicted in a "trial by newspaper."

First place winner was Paula Andrich of Cardinal Mooney High in Youngstown and second place winner was Diane Denmeade of Youngstown East.

$1,815 Contributed In Dimes Campaign

A total of $1,815.82 has been received to date in the Salem March of Dimes campaign, Chairman Louis J. Raymond reports, with the largest share resulting from the Mothers March on Polio Wednesday. That residential canvass netted $1,300.22.

A rural mail appeal from county headquarters, mailed to C. H. Musser, county treasurer, totaled $82.60 while a letter appeal to city professional, business and industrial concerns by the city chairman brought in $308.29.

Ninety coin containers yielded $102.46. Other contributions were received through the Elks 25th anniversary birthday cake, $6.30, and the Kiwanis Club's 25th anniversary birthday cake, $15.95. The over-all goal is $2,000.

Macmillan

Pope and the prime minister said. The papal chief of protocol reported after the audience, however, that Macmillan said he was extremely happy at the opportunity to talk with the Pope.

Altogether Macmillan spent an hour in the Vatican. After his audience with the Pope, he called upon Amleto Cardinal Cicognani, Vatican secretary of state. They talked for 10 minutes. Macmillan also visited St. Peter's.

Vatican officials said the Pope gave Macmillan a gold souvenir medal of the Vatican Ecumenical. On his way to the audience, Macmillan was applauded by a large number of English clergy and student priests in the Clementine Hall, first large room of the papal apartments.

Macmillan and Fanfani conferred at Chigi Palace for nearly two hours on the Common Market situation and other European problems.

The two leaders met for three hours Friday. An Italian spokesman said they explored ways to keep alive hopes for a unified Europe including Britain.

Both pledged to continue the drive for European unity. "The ideal of European unity is, between us, higher than ever," Fanfani declared. "If there are troubles," Macmillan said, "they are a spur to further efforts toward European unity."

Macmillan's casual talks here were his first with a European government chief since France stunned the West by vetoing Britain's bid for Common Market membership.

Italy, disturbed at the prospect of growing French power within the Common Market, had championed British entry. The four other Common Market members — West Germany, The Netherlands, Belgium and Luxembourg — also rallied unsuccessfully to the British cause.

In a related development, former U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter met in London with British officials seeking closer trade ties with the United States to offset the effects of De Gaulle's veto.

The British assured Herter, now President Kennedy's special envoy on trade problems, that Macmillan's government will back to the hilt U.S. plans for cutting tariffs and spurring world trade.

Farm Bureau Nears Membership Quota

Twenty-two members are still needed to make the goal of 565 for the Columbiana County Farm Bureau Federation, according to Galen Greenisen of Salem RD 2, chairman of the drive.

Sixty persons attended an oyster supper and final drive report meeting Thursday evening at the New Garden Methodist Church at which time Feb. 13 was set as final date for reports on membership.

TRANSMISSION STOLEN

Donald Goodballet of 534 Maryland Ave., Salem Heights, reported to city police that the transmission of a 1961 Corvette was stolen as the car was parked in the Parker Chevrolet lot at 292 W. State St. The theft occurred sometime in the past three weeks, Goodballet said. The $350 theft was discovered when workers went to put a new motor in the car.

Several pieces of new equipment purchased in 1962 were: 500 feet of two-and-one-half inch hose, two Scott airpicks, one nozzle, and repair on the 1947 truck.

George Boston has been elected fire chief for 1963. Other officers are: Frank Stouffer, assistant fire chief; Robert Boston, captain; Harold Smith and Carl Deffenbaugh, lieutenants; Andrew Sarna, property man; Emmet Longbottom, president; Walter Lesch, vice president; Edward Davis, treasurer; James Tingle, secretary; and Harry DeLucia and Joe Schaffer, dependency board.

These officers will be formally appointed by Mayor William Radler to be approved by village council.

Other firemen are Robert Waggle, William Weikart, Arden Llewellyn, Glenn Caddes, Cecil Atkinson, Robert Davis, Steve Franklin, Elwood Smith, Wesley Bell and Earl Selway.

Woman Hurt In One Of Two Accidents

Mrs. Maxine Coen, 40, of RD 1, Wellsville, was injured in a two-car crash Friday at 2 p. m. on County Road 418 near her home.

She was treated by a physician for lacerations of the right hand and a bruise of the left leg.

She was a passenger in a car operated by her husband, Guy, 46, which was struck by another driven by Thomas T. Kellogg, 52, of 308 Jefferson St., Salineville.

Coen turned into the path of the Kellogg auto, Lisbon state highway patrolmen said, and was cited for making an improper turn.

Motorists from Canton and Cleveland escaped injury in separate mishaps in which their autos rolled over after sliding off the pavement.

A car driven by John Goettler, 40, of Canton overturned at 6:15 a.m. on Route 62, three miles west of Salem and another car, driven by Alec R. McAllister of Cleveland, was involved in a similar mishap on Alternate Route 14, two miles north of the Mahoning-Columbiana County line.

Regents Bill

a trustee from each school. Fisher and others favoring the regents bill point out that council members tend to compete with one another in a natural desire to better their own institutions. The regents would absorb the council's duties and present a statewide higher education budget recommendation to the legislature.

Would Sever Connections

Under terms of the bill, none of the six regents to be appointed by the governor would be allowed to have any direct connection with a college or university while serving on the board. The other three members would be the House Speaker, Senate majority leader and the attorney general.

In some areas, the regents would have absolute power of approval or disapproval. It is in those areas that educators opposed to the bill get the jitters.

For example, the board would have power to approve or reject establishment of university branches or extensions and all other state-controlled higher education facilities.

Would Take Over Duties

The board would assume the duties of the Ohio Community College Board.

And it could require any institutions receiving state assistance, but not primarily supported by the state, to submit upon request an accounting of state fund expenditures.

The chief difference in the bill submitted Thursday from the one introduced Jan. 16 deals with standardization of boards of trustees.

Currently, all of the state's schools have seven trustees, except Miami University which has 27.

Would Expand Boards

The bill would require the governor to appoint two more trustees at each school except Miami and set the terms for all at nine years instead of the current seven.

At Miami, the trustee reduction would be completed during the next five years as existing terms expire.

Only a few educators have spoken against the bill thus far, including Kent State University's retiring president, George Bowman, and Ohio Wesleyan University President Elden T. Smith.

But many others are expected to make their stand clear when committee hearings start.

Longworth said he hopes to get the bill before his committee within a week.

John O. Ling of Akron, a native of Marion, will become State Auditor Roger W. Tracy's district supervisor Feb. 15.

Ling, chief deputy in the Summit County clerk's office for the last six years, will supervise an area made up of Stark, Summit, Wayne, Tuscarawas, Carroll, Harrison, Jefferson and Medina counties.

Icy Quakers Fall To Potters' Rally

By MARK W. MILLER
News Sports Editor

East Liverpool, Salem's old county rival, pulled the upset of the season in this district by knocking off the Salem High Quakers 58-53 in the river city field house Friday night.

A weather prediction yesterday called for freezing drizzle. The forecast failed to materialize, except for the icy fourth period that Salem showed.

If the Potters (3-9) don't win another game, it won't make any difference. They have chalked up their sweetest victory on their 1962-63 schedule.

A torrid finish by the Potters and Salem's inability to find the range, plus five misses on one-and-one foul shots, spelled the difference.

TWO OTHER THINGS that proved beneficial to the Potters' late drive were the confidence East Liverpool had on its own court and a few breaks that came to the Potters at the right time.

Many of Salem's field goal attempts rolled around the hoop once or twice, then fell off.

East Liverpool's rebounding was very strong. The Potters maintained an edge in this department just about every stanza. Numerous times East Liverpool held the lead, and just as many times Salem moved out in front. On other occasions the score was tied.

A SIZZLING third period was turned in by both schools. Salem canned eight of 11 shots and three-of-three from the charity circle.

Trailing by as much as five points in the session, the Potters kept bouncing back, and cut the deficit to one point to start the final frame.

With 5:53 left in the game,

Dave Capel made a push shot to tie the score at 50-50. For the next two minutes neither team hit.

At 3:33, one of the county's leading scorers, Dean Cline, tossed in a jump shot to put the Potters out in front to stay.

Of the five losses this campaign, Salem has been set back three times on the road. Aside from last night, the Quakers lost at Massillon 70-62 and at Warren 64-60. Salem's over-all record stands at 9-5.

COACH JOHN Cabas' aggregation tried 52 field goals and swished the nets with 22 shots for 42 per cent. Salem had its poorest showing at the foul line this season, making only nine of 18 free throws for 50 per cent.

The Potters also made 42 per cent of their shots, sinking 24 of 57. At the foul line East Liverpool tossed in 10 of 17 for 58.8 per cent.

Bill Beery took scoring honors for Salem with 22 points. Bob King chipped in with 11.

Cline chalked up 21 markers to spark the Potters. Frank McComas finished with 17.

THE POTTERS are host to Wellsville tonight. The Bengals nipped East Liverpool 57-53 in their first meeting Dec. 15.

Salem is idle until next Friday when the Quakers will entertain Boardman.

At intermission East Liverpool was awarded the fur-lined traveling trophy for a year. The piece of pottery is given each year to the winner of the annual Salem, East Liverpool grid clash.

Salem Jayvees Are Beaten By East Liverpool 59-37

East Liverpool's junior varsity raced to a 19-8 lead in the initial period and went on to post an easy 59-37 over the Salem JV's at Pottersville Friday night.

Salem's juniors must have been trying to tip off their big brothers (the varsity squad). The Red and Black just couldn't buy a bucket.

George Begalla was the only Salem player able to score well. He led both teams with 24 points.

The Potters snapped a Salem five game win streak, while posting their 10th win in 13 starts. The Quakers are 7-6.

East Liverpool held a 35-15 margin at intermission and a 45-24 spread at the end of the third stanza.

Salem's accuracy was best displayed at the foul line, where the Red and Black were able to toss in 21 of 33 free throws for 63 per cent. Coach Karl Zeller's aggregation made only eight shots from the field.

Bill Hall led East Liverpool with 22 points. Joe Maltarich collected 16 markers for the losers.

Brumel Whips Thomas Again

Clears 7-2, But Record Bid Fails

NEW YORK (AP) — "Bah," grumbled Russia's world high jump record holder, Valery Brumel, today, "those short spikes, they are no good for me."

Brumel, who has a world record of 7 feet, 9 1/2 inches pending, whipped America's John Thomas for the seventh time in seven tries Friday night in the Millrose Games in Madison Square Garden, but instead of being happy he was upset over the turn of events.

After he had beaten Thomas by clearing 7-2 before a standing room only crowd of 16,212, Brumel decided to keep going and try to break his own indoor record of 7-3 1/2 which he set the last time he was here in 1961.

The first time, he didn't even get off the ground. On his second try, he hit the bar on the way up, and on the third try, he fell flat again.

Very embarrassing for a world champion and he didn't take it easily.

"These spikes are too short," he complained holding them up. Sure enough, they were down to practically nothing.

Thomas, who has been having his troubles getting over 7 feet of late, said:

"I'll beat him. Don't worry about that. I know I can do it. But right now he's the best in the world."

It was a great night for the Russians, despite Brumel's reaction. Not only did he continue his mastery over Thomas, but Igor Ter-Ovanesyan whipped his nemesis, Ralph Boston, for the first time after eight failures and broke the indoor broad jump record to boot, going 26-10.

Boston's recognized record is 26-6 1/4. The Ter also has a 27-3 outdoor mark up for record.

Further, in the most startling development of all, Valery Bulishev, the third member of the touring Russian crew and sort of a forgotten man among Brumel and Ter-Ovanesyan, won the half-mile in 1:50.8. This fellow finished second in the 800 meters in the European championships last summer in Belgrade, and is reputedly the finest middle distance runner ever produced in Russia. He certainly looks it after beating Ernie Gunliffe and Jim Dupres with a fast finishing kick.

January Temperature Averaged 19.3 Degrees

Transposition of decimal points in Friday's News story about January's weather resulted in erroneous temperature figures.

January's average temperature was 19.3 degrees, almost eight degrees under the January average of 27.

The coldest January on record was in 1918 when the average temperature was 13.1 degrees. Last month was the seventh coldest on record in this area, according to Edwin Copeland Millport weather forecaster.

Nicklaus Has 5 Stroke Lead In Palm Springs Golf Event

By JIM BACON

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—Young Jack Nicklaus is a big five strokes ahead of everybody today in the $50,000 Palm Springs Golf Classic after shooting a 67 in a sandstorm that would have kept Lawrence of Arabia in his tent.

The 23-year-old National Open champion fashioned a 31 on his first nine and it looked like he could do the same on the next—then came the wind and sand.

When the storm settled, he had a par 36, which put him in the 202 bracket after three days and 54 holes of the marathon 90-hole event.

His closest competitor was Johnny Pott at 207 with rounds of 69-68-70. Alone at 208 was Bob Shave Jr. of Willoughby, Ohio, who had a 72 Friday.

At 209 was prime favorite Gary Player. Al Geiberger and Gardner Dickinson. Player shot a 73 on the third round, Geiberger a 68 and Dickinson a 70.

"Amazingly," Nicklaus commented, "I'm not playing very well, really. I'm just getting the ball in the hole."

But the wind did hurt Nicklaus on the second round. On the 10th hole the wind stopped a birdie putt on the lip of the cup. On the 16th hole a 145-yard nine-iron shot headed for the pin and the wind picked it up and carried it off the back of the green.

The other two members of golf's Big Three had trouble. The same wind bothered Player no end. On his 73, he missed six putts of 6 feet or under.

Arnold Palmer took a 7 on the first hole at Bermuda Dunes when he whacked his tee shot out of bounds. It gave him a 71 to add to previous rounds of 71 and 72.

Washington Upsets Stanford 49-48

Cincy Entertains St. Louis Tonight; Loyola Seeks 20th

By TED MEIER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Out of the frying pan into the fire. That's tonight's prospect for the top-ranked Cincinnati Bearcats, trying for their 35th straight victory against St. Louis in the top game on the major college basketball program.

Seared by the Drake Bulldogs Thursday before they managed to win in overtime, the Bearcats of Coach Ed Jucker face a fired-up Billiken team that has high hopes of snapping winning streak of the National Collegiate champions.

"We're going after them, you can be sure of that," said John Benington, coach of the Billikens.

The game, in the Cincinnati Field House, tops a heavy Saturday program in which all but one of the top ten teams in The Associated Press poll go into action. Only Illinois, No. 4, is idle.

Second-ranked Chicago Loyola, like Cincinnati unbeaten this season, goes after victory No. 20 against Iowa in the feature of a tripleheader at Chicago Stadium. Duke, No. 3, is at North Carolina and Arizona State, No. 5, enters Texas Western.

In the other games involving the Top Ten Alabama is at Georgia Tech, No. 6; Stanford, No. 7, is at Washington State; Colorado, No. 8, is at Oklahoma; Louisiana State is at Mississippi State, No. 9; and Tulsa is at Wichita, No. 10.

Perhaps a chilling omen for Cincinnati was Stanford's surprise defeat by the Washington Huskies Friday night in the only game involving a team in the Top Ten. Washington upset the Big Six leaders 49-48 on Charlie Hart's hook shot in the last 3 seconds of play.

In other Friday games UCLA beat Southern California 77-65; Oregon took California 60-55; Oregon State defeated Seattle 66-60; Washington State whipped Idaho 66-57. Wyoming thumped Denver 87-72. San Francisco downed Portland 64-52. Colorado State U. humbled Montana State 100-83 and Yale tied Penn for the Ivy League lead by nipping Dartmouth 74-72 in overtime.

On the Ohio scene, Defiance's Yellow Jackets eked out a 66-64 win over Cedarville to move into second place in the Mid-Ohio League race.

Ray Etzler topped the Defiance scorers with a 19-point effort while Gary Walshaw of Cedarville finished with 18. Cedarville had a chance to pull it out in the closing seconds when, trailing by one point, sophomore Dozier Carter missed two free throws and Defiance nabbed the rebound. Wilmington with a 3-1 mark is leading the conference. Defiance is 3-2 in league play.

Elsewhere, Wilberforce's Bulldogs forged ahead midway in the second half and went on to defeat Kentucky State, 66-58. Ben Kendrick sparked the Wilberforce attack with 24 points.

In other games, Campbellsville, Ky. College led all the way but had to put down a late rally to defeat Rio Grande on the Kentucky floor 89-84 and Clarion State of Pennsylvania came from behind to edge Malone of Canton 62-61 on the Ohioans' boards.

Greenford Rally Decisions Mathews

Greenford High School rallied in the second half to trim Mathews 69-65 in an independent basketball game at the losers' Trumbull County gymnasium Friday.

Coach Jerry Sues' Bobcats chalked up their 11 win in 13 starts in so doing.

Mathews took a 13-9 lead in the initial period. The score was tied 25-25 at intermission. Greenford held a 48-42 margin at the end of the third stanza.

West Branch Loses To Canfield 63-62

Dave Hood tossed in the winning basket with three seconds left in the final frame to spark Canfield to a 63-62 victory over West Branch High School at Canfield Friday night.

Coach Spike McLaughlin's Cardinals chalked up their seventh win in 14 starts. The loss evened West Branch's season record at 7-7.

West Branch travels to Youngstown to battle Rayen tonight. At the end of the initial period Friday the score was tied 14-14. Canfield took a 32-24 lead by intermission and held a 51-45 spread at the conclusion of the third stanza.

Dave Coope chalked up 19 points to pace Canfield. Pete Ort chipped in with 17 and Hood collected 15. Ray Oesch took scoring honors for West Branch with 21 markers. Dick Wallace finished with 12.

A word from THERON at the Country Store

MORE ON THIS SUNDAY BLUE LAW

I have found out that it works out real well for us not to open till around noon. This gives everyone a chance to go to church before they stop in and pick up a few items they may have forgotten. We have felt all along that people should not make a habit of Sunday shopping except in emergencies. Make their purchases either on Saturday or Monday even though it might mean shopping at another store.

To tell people they cannot purchase a loaf of bread or a bottle of milk on Sunday is a pretty strong restriction. I don't really believe many want that. To make Sunday a regular business day would be much worse. Some sensible law should be passed.
